WEEK 1: ALFRED AT THIEL

Under first-year head coach Mike Winslow and his staff, the Tomcats look to lay the foundation for a new tradition when they host the Alfred Saxons at Alumni Stadium.

A traditional power, Alfred is coming off a 7-4 season. The Saxons have received national attention in preseason polls as a Top 25 team.

Led by senior quarterback Ben Burk, who threw for 1,586 yards and 12 touchdowns last season, and junior preseason All-American safety Raeqwon Greer, who picked off five passes a season ago, the Saxons have good reason to be excited about 2019.

When building a football team, even with today's spread offenses, it is best to start on the defensive side of the ball. And the Tomcats already have a place to start there with returning All-PAC Honorable Mention selections Matt Crawford and Trou Johnson, both of whom were named team captains this week.

Crawford averaged 7.5 tackles per game last season, the 13th most in the PAC. Johnson made 61 tackles in 2018 and led the team with six pass breakups.

On offense, the Tomcats will look to senior quarterback Marko Bakovic to lead a young, eager group. Bakovic completed 85 passes for 853 yards in 2018. He threw eight touchdown passes and just three interceptions.

Thiel in Openers

Thiel is 3-2 in its last five season-openers. Thiel's last season-opening win was on the road against Allegheny on Sept. 3, 2016 (44-21).

By the Numbers

First-year head coach Mike Winslow has 19 returning letterwinners and 13 starters on the 2019 roster. On defense, seven starters and 10 letterwinners are back. On offense, four starters and seven letterwinners return. Thiel's starting punter, Dylan Kleckner, and kicker, Chris Rosales, are also back this season.

Welcome to the Team

Thiel's roster includes 44 freshmen.

Last Year's Opener

The Tomcats opened the 2018 season with a 44-16 loss on the road to the Alfred Saxons.

The Saxons wasted little time on their first possession to take an early lead. Quarterback Ben Burk hit Robert Smith on a 12-yard strike to make it 7-0 after a successful point after attempt. Alfred led 7-0 with 10:29 remaining in the first.

Thiel picked up two points on a safety as a three-and-out forced by the Tomcat defense resulted in a Saxon fourth-down punt attempt. On the play, a high snap went over Alfred's Ben Sennett's head and out of the end zone giving Thiel its first points of the game.

In the second quarter, Saxon running back Nasir Smith ripped off three touchdown runs. Smith went on to collect 144 yards rushing on the day.

The Tomcat offense came to life in the second half as quarterback Marko Bakovic threw two touchdown passes. Bakovic completed 22-of-44 passes for 188 yards with two TD strikes.

Grant Milne led Thiel with 10 tackles, three of which were for a loss of yards. Dusty Maines made 11 tackles.

All-PAC Honorees

Thiel returns a trio of All-PAC Honorable Mention players from 2018 this season in senior linebacker Matt Crawford, junior safety Trou Johnson and Kleckner, the team's senior punter.

A two-time All-PAC Honorable Mention selection, Crawford averaged 7.5 tackles per game in 2018, the 13th most in the league.

Johnson, also a two-time All-PAC Honorable Mention pick, recorded 61 tackles last season and led the team with six pass breakups.

Kleckner led the PAC in punting yards (2,756). He ranked third in the conference in punting average with an average boot of 37.8 yards.

Captains Named

Crawford and Johnson were named the team's captains for the 2019 season this week.

Scouting Alfred

The Alfred Saxons were ranked 17th in the Lindy's Street & Smith and 20th in the College Football America Yearbook's 2019 Division III Preason Top 30.

The Saxons also received 48 votes in the D3football.com Top 25 Preseason Poll.

Alfred went 7-4 overall and 4-3 in the Empire 8 last season. Alfred concluded the 2018 season with a 14-7 win over Salisbury in the ECAC ASA S. Bushnell Bowl.

Junior safety Raeqwon Greer was named a First Team Preseason All-American by D3football.com earlier this month. He made 56 tackles a season ago and intercepted five passes.

Senior linebacker Nick Milgate finished second on the team last year with 96 tackles, eight of which were behind the line of scrimmage. He also intercepted two passes and recovered a pair of fumbles.

Among the team's returners on offense are senior quarterback Ben Burk and senior running back Aaron Griffin.

Burk completed 120-of-239 passes for 1,586 yards in 2018. He threw 12 touchdown passes and nine interceptions.

Griffin ran for 314 yards on 51 carries last season. He scored four rushing touchdowns.

Academic All-America

Crawford was named to the Google Cloud Academic All-America First Team in December, as selected by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA).

Crawford is also a two-time Google Cloud Academic All-District 4 First Team selection.

A secondary education and history major, Crawford carries a 3.97 cumulative grade-point average.

Crawford is the first Thiel football player selected as an Academic All-American since 2007 when Chris Lorber and Michael Stimac were both named.

In August, Crawford was nominated for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy.

ABOUT THE PRESIDENTS' ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC), built on the basic belief that an athletic program is an integral part of college life, but not an entity in itself, looks back on over sixty years of growth and ahead to years of continued academic and athletic excellence.

The league's name clearly reflects its founding principle that operational control of all aspects of intercollegiate athletics is ultimately the responsibility of the presidents of each member institution, and thus active presidential leadership and oversight is paramount in conference administration.

Formally organized in 1955 by Western Reserve University, John Carroll University, Case Institute of Technology and Wayne State University, the PAC was the result of a realization that college athletics, despite numerous virtues for the individual and the institution, were gradually becoming a financial and academic burden. If athletics were to be continued, action had to be taken to place the program on its proper level. This included the premise that benefits of participation should be provided to as many students as possible. The PAC and its membership continue its original, defining mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence.

Institutions involved understand that the key components to its progress lie in the foundation of faith in each member by each other member. It is the conviction of its membership that the PAC is the solution to the dilemma of intercollegiate athletic competition, and they have staked their athletic future on this premise.

Comprised of 10 select private institutions – Bethany College, Chatham University, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Geneva College, Grove City College, Saint Vincent College, Thiel College, Washington & Jefferson College, Waynesburg University and Westminster College – the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics, with academics at the center of each member's philosophy.

In 2012, the PAC Presidents' Council voted to add Carnegie Mellon University and Case Western Reserve University as affiliate members in the sport of football.

The PAC crowns league champions and awards all-conference honors in its 23 championship sports. Head coaches determine All-PAC squads for all team sports, while in individual sports, such as cross country, golf and indoor and outdoor track and field, all-PAC accolades are based upon performances at the conference championships.

The PAC, which recently celebrated its 60th anniversary, annually awards its men's and women's All-Sports Trophies to the schools which perform best across the board in PAC competition.

Staying true to its original mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence, the PAC has seen over 200 of its participating student-athletes recognized as Academic All-Americans, while the league has also produced numerous NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. Last year, the conference named 1,097 of its student-athletes to the PAC Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes all participating student-athletes who earn a term grade-point average of 3.60 or above.
