Saxons beat Tomcats in Opener

The Thiel Tomcats lost their season opener Saturday to the Alfred Saxons at Alumni Stadium, 42-0.

After receiving the opening kick, the Tomcats drove the ball 65 yards on 14 plays. However, the drive quickly ended on first-and-goal when the Tomcats fumbled and the Saxons recovered to end the threat.

On the ensuing drive, Thiel's defense appeared to hold Alfred three-and-out, but a personal foul set the Saxons up with a fresh set of downs at their own 31. Seven plays later the Saxons scored their first touchdown of the game on Kevin Bragaglia's one-yard run.

The Saxons scored four more unanswered touchdowns in the second quarter to hold a commanding 35-0 lead at halftime. Aaron Griffin scored on a one-yard run with 11:47 remaining in the second quarter while Casey Boston scored on a 12-yard run at the 9:16 mark.

Bragaglia scored his second touchdown of the game with 4:24 remaining in the first half on a four-yard run. James Jones III caught a 14-yard touchdown pass from Ben Burk with a little more than one minute remaining in the first half.

Jones III scored the only points in the second half on a 42-yard pass from Casey Boston with 2:12 left in the third quarter.

Burk completed 7-of-8 passes for 71 yards and one touchdown pass. Burk also led the Saxons with 98 yards on the ground on six carries. Casey Boston completed five passes for 107 yards with one touchdown strike. Jones III led the Saxons with four catches for 60 yards. He caught two touchdown passes on the day.

Thiel quarterback Marko Bakovic completed 10-of-14 passes for 96 yards. Emmanuel Ramsey led the Tomcats with 32 yards on the ground on 18 attempts.

Trou Johnson and Eligah Flynn led Thiel on defense with eight tackles apiece. Flynn also recovered a fumble for the Tomcats late in the third quarter. Leo Pamphile led Alfred with 10 tackles. Pamphile made five tackles behind the line of scrimmage and recorded four sacks.

Caleb Catching Fire

Playing in his first collegiate game, Caleb Shuler made a game-best seven catches for 64 yards against Alfred on Saturday.

Scouting W&J

The Presidents are ranked 15th in the country according to the most recent D3football.com Top 25 poll, which was released Sunday.

W&J climbed to the 15th spot after defeating top-25 ranked Wittenberg 16-8 last Saturday in the season opener for both teams.

Senior defensive tackle Mike Williams also earned a spot on the D3football.com Team of the Week.

Williams made 10 tackles against the Wittenberg Tigers last Saturday. He also recorded a pair of sacks and forced a fumble, which Nick Getz returned 52 yards for a touchdown.

Williams led a defense last Saturday that collected eight tackles for a loss of yards, five sacks, three forced fumbles, three recovered fumbles and a pair of interceptions.

EJ Thompson led the Presidents on the ground last week with 46 yards on 16 carries. Jacob Adams completed 12-of-30 passes for 91 yards. He threw one touchdown pass and three interceptions. Josh Burns made three catches, one of which was a touchdown grab, for 40 yards.

Last Year Against W&J

The Tomcats fell to the Presidents last season, 55-0.

Grant Milne, Dusty Maines and Dalton DuBrosky each collected double-digit tackles.

Bakovic completed 13 passes for 144 yards.

Keyandre Hood made four catches for 33 yards.

Remember When

Thiel's last win over W&J was on Oct. 1, 2005. Trailing by six points (27-21) heading into the fourth quarter, the Tomcats took the lead (35-27) after Steve Minton scored on a 21-yard run and Zjaque Douglas picked off a pass and ran 41 yards for a touchdown with 6:24 remaining in regulation.

A 19-yard touchdown pass from Chris Edwards to Tom McCafferty with 4:12 left in the fourth quarter forced overtime.

In overtime, the Presidents turned the ball over on their first possession, setting the stage for Sammy Koyl, who drilled a 22-yard field goal.

Minton, who will be inducted into the Thiel College Athletic Hall of Fame in October, ran for 138 yards against the Presidents and scored two touchdowns.

ABOUT THE PRESIDENTS' ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC), built on the basic belief that an athletic program is an integral part of college life, but not an entity in itself, looks back on over sixty years of growth and ahead to years of continued academic and athletic excellence.

The league's name clearly reflects its founding principle that operational control of all aspects of intercollegiate athletics is ultimately the responsibility of the presidents of each member institution, and thus active presidential leadership and oversight is paramount in conference administration.

Formally organized in 1955 by Western Reserve University, John Carroll University, Case Institute of Technology and Wayne State University, the PAC was the result of a realization that college athletics, despite numerous virtues for the individual and the institution, were gradually becoming a financial and academic burden. If athletics were to be continued, action had to be taken to place the program on its proper level. This included the premise that benefits of participation should be provided to as many students as possible. The PAC and its membership continue its original, defining mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence.

Institutions involved understand that the key components to its progress lie in the foundation of faith in each member by each other member. It is the conviction of its membership that the PAC is the solution to the dilemma of intercollegiate athletic competition, and they have staked their athletic future on this premise.

Comprised of 10 select private institutions - Bethany College, Chatham University, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Geneva College, Grove City College, Saint Vincent College, Thiel College, Washington & Jefferson College, Waynesburg University and Westminster College - the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics, with academics at the center of each member's philosophy.

In 2012, the PAC Presidents' Council voted to add Carnegie Mellon University and Case Western Reserve University as affiliate members in the sport of football.

The PAC crowns league champions and awards all-conference honors in its 23 championship sports. Head coaches determine All-PAC squads for all team sports, while in individual sports, such as cross country, golf and indoor and outdoor track and field, all-PAC accolades are based upon performances at the conference championships.

The PAC, which recently celebrated its 60th anniversary, annually awards its men's and women's All-Sports Trophies to the schools which perform best across the board in PAC competition.

Staying true to its original mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence, the PAC has seen over 200 of its participating student-athletes recognized as Academic All-Americans, while the league has also produced numerous NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. Last year, the conference named 1,097 of its student-athletes to the PAC Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes all participating student-athletes who earn a term grade-point average of 3.60 or above.
