WEEK 3: THIEL AT GENEVA

The Tomcats look to get back on track Saturday when they play their first road game of the season against the Geneva Golden Tornadoes. The PAC game is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

Like the Tomcats, the Golden Tornadoes enter Saturday's game 0-2 overall and 0-1 in the PAC. Geneva opened the season with a 41-27 loss to Mount St. Joseph before falling 31-6 to Carnegie Mellon last Saturday.

Geneva is a run-first team that has outgained opponents on the ground, 403-58.

Running back Justin Loughrie leads Geneva's running game with 168 yards on 26 carries. Quarterback Amos Luptak also has 159 rushing yards on the season.

Senior linebacker Tyler Cann leads the Golden Tornadoes on defense with 23 tackles.

Freshman running back Emmanuel Ramsey leads Thiel with 60 rushing yards on 28 carries. Quarterback Marko Bakovic has completed 17-of-32 passes for 187 yards. Freshman Caleb Shuler is the top receiver with eight catches for 96 yards.

Safety Trou Johnson and linebacker Matt Crawford lead Thiel's defense. Johnson has 18 tackles on the season, including two behind the line of scrimmage. Crawford has recorded 15 tackles and one sack.

No. 15 W&J downs Thiel

The 15th-ranked Washington & Jefferson Presidents earned a 59-0 Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) win over the Thiel Tomcats last Saturday at Alumni Stadium.

The Presidents led 35-0 at the end of the first quarter and never looked back in earning their first conference win of the season.

Andrew Wolf scored W&J's first two touchdowns of the game on receptions of 17 and 26 yards, respectively. Cameron O'Brien also scored two first-quarter touchdowns on four- and 10-yard passes, respectively.

Jordan West scored the Presidents' last touchdown in the first quarter on a two-yard run. West also scored on a seven-yard run in the second quarter.

Jacob Adams completed 15-of-19 passes for 195 yards. Adams threw four touchdown passes on the day. Wolf caught six passes for 89 yards. EJ Thompson led the Presidents on the ground with 58 yards on 12 carries.

Alex Bellinotti led W&J with six tackles, one of which was behind the line of scrimmage. Max Garda made four tackles and intercepted two passes.

Marko Bakovic completed seven passes for Thiel for 91 yards. Emmanuel Ramsey ran for 28 yards on 10 carries.

Trou Johnson let Thiel with 11 tackles. Matt Crawford made nine tackles. Crawford recorded two tackles for a loss and one sack.

Scouting Geneva

Like the Tomcats, the Geneva Golden Tornadoes enter tonight's game 0-2 overall and 0-1 in the PAC. Geneva opened the season with a 41-27 loss to Mount St. Joseph before falling to Carnegie Mellon last Saturday, 31-6.

The Golden Tornadoes are a run-first team. In fact, Geneva has run for an average of 201.5 yards per game this season while opponents have averaged just 29 yards per contest.

Geneva has attempted just 15 passes this season with seven completions for 134 yards. Opponents, on the other hand, have completed 42-of-58 passes for 654 yards.

Running back Justin Loughrie leads the Golden Tornadoes on the ground with 168 yards on 26 attempts. He averages 6.5 yards per carry and 84 yards per game. Quarterback Amos Luptak also has 159 rushing yards on the season.

Luptak has completed 7-of-15 passes for 134 yards. He has yet to throw a touchdown pass or an interception. Nick Monteleone is the team's top receiver with four receptions for 76 yards.

Senior linebacker Tyler Cann leads the team with 23 tackles on the year. Dakota Allen, another linebacker, has 12 stops on the year, including a pair of sacks.

Last Year Against Geneva

Freshman wide receiver Devin Turner caught two touchdown passes from Bakovic, but it wasn't enough for the Tomcats in a 27-14 PAC loss to the Golden Tornadoes at Alumni Stadium.

Geneva scored first with 6:19 remaining in the first quarter when Levi Cook scored on a 14-yard run to cap off an 11-play drive that consumed 5:30 of the game clock.

The Tomcats tied up the game on their next drive when Bakovic connected with Turner from 21 yards out to complete a 7-play drive in a little less than three minutes.

The Golden Tornadoes surged ahead early in the second quarter when Frankie Centofanti scored on a nine-yard run. Geneva added to its lead with 2:02 left before halftime when Trewon Marshall scored on a five-yard run. Marshall's touchdown run finished an 11-play drive that covered 74 yards. The extra point was blocked, but Geneva held a 20-7 lead at the break.

Marshall ran for a game-best 127 yards on 27 carries. Cook ran for 84 yards and a score on 15 totes.

The third quarter was scoreless, but the Golden Tornadoes added to their lead early in the fourth frame when linebacker Tyler Cann picked off a pass and ran 16 yards down the near side of the field for his team's fourth touchdown of the game.

Turner caught his second touchdown pass of the game, this one a 45-yarder, from Bakovic with 1:17 remaining in regulation.

Bakovic completed 17-of-33 passes for 211 yards. He threw two TD passes and one interception.

Remember When

Thiel defeated Geneva 21-14 in overtime at Alumni Stadium on Sept. 15, 2012, to snap a 24-game losing streak.

Kicker Cody McClelland lined up for a potential 22-yard, go-ahead field goal in overtime. But the snapper-to-holder exchange did not go smoothly.

McClelland picked up the loose ball and, under heavy pressure, lobbed what would count as the game-winning touchdown pass to Berend Grube.

Geneva still had an opportunity to tie the score up, but Thiel's defense kept the Golden Tornadoes out of the end zone to seal the win.

It was the first time the Tomcats rang the Victory Bell since Oct. 21, 2009.

The Tomcats took a 14-0 lead into halftime on second-quarter touchdown runs by Josh Potter and Andrew Smith from 2- and 25-yards out, respectively.

Geneva came back in the third quarter and tied up the score, 14-14, on touchdown receptions by Corey O'Patchen (38 yards) and Rocco Colavecchia (10 yards).

The Golden Tornadoes lined up for a potential 32-yard game-winning field goal with 23 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter, but Bryan Visingardi's kick sailed wide left.

Smith connected with Grube for a 16-yard completion on Thiel's first play in overtime. Taylor Fink then got the ball down to the Geneva 5-yard line on a pair of runs before Smith's third-down pass in the far corner of the end zone for Nate Blazeovich fell incomplete.

McClelland's field goal attempt turned touchdown pass followed on fourth-and-goal from the Geneva 5-yard line.

The Play, as it became known on campus and in Thiel football lore, went on to be named the Play of the Week by D3football.com.

ABOUT THE PRESIDENTS' ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC), built on the basic belief that an athletic program is an integral part of college life, but not an entity in itself, looks back on over sixty years of growth and ahead to years of continued academic and athletic excellence.

The league's name clearly reflects its founding principle that operational control of all aspects of intercollegiate athletics is ultimately the responsibility of the presidents of each member institution, and thus active presidential leadership and oversight is paramount in conference administration.

Formally organized in 1955 by Western Reserve University, John Carroll University, Case Institute of Technology and Wayne State University, the PAC was the result of a realization that college athletics, despite numerous virtues for the individual and the institution, were gradually becoming a financial and academic burden. If athletics were to be continued, action had to be taken to place the program on its proper level. This included the premise that benefits of participation should be provided to as many students as possible. The PAC and its membership continue its original, defining mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence.

Institutions involved understand that the key components to its progress lie in the foundation of faith in each member by each other member. It is the conviction of its membership that the PAC is the solution to the dilemma of intercollegiate athletic competition, and they have staked their athletic future on this premise.

Comprised of 10 select private institutions - Bethany College, Chatham University, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Geneva College, Grove City College, Saint Vincent College, Thiel College, Washington & Jefferson College, Waynesburg University and Westminster College - the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics, with academics at the center of each member's philosophy.

In 2012, the PAC Presidents' Council voted to add Carnegie Mellon University and Case Western Reserve University as affiliate members in the sport of football.

The PAC crowns league champions and awards all-conference honors in its 23 championship sports. Head coaches determine All-PAC squads for all team sports, while in individual sports, such as cross country, golf and indoor and outdoor track and field, all-PAC accolades are based upon performances at the conference championships.

The PAC, which recently celebrated its 60th anniversary, annually awards its men's and women's All-Sports Trophies to the schools which perform best across the board in PAC competition.

Staying true to its original mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence, the PAC has seen over 200 of its participating student-athletes recognized as Academic All-Americans, while the league has also produced numerous NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. Last year, the conference named 1,097 of its student-athletes to the PAC Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes all participating student-athletes who earn a term grade-point average of 3.60 or above.
