Tomcats start strong but fall to Golden Tornadoes

The Tomcats lost a Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) game to the Geneva Golden Tornadoes Saturday night at Reeves Field, 45-10.

Thiel opened up a 10-0 early lead. After receiving the opening kickoff, the Tomcats needed just five plays to score the first touchdown of the game.

Senior quarterback Marko Bakovic connected with freshman wide receiver Caleb Shuler for a 14-yard gain on the first play from scrimmage before freshman running back Emmanuel Ramsey ripped off a 24-yard run.

Ramsey gained two yards on the next two plays. Facing a third down-and-eight situation, Bakovic threw a 38-yard touchdown pass to Shuler. Chris Rosales tacked on the extra point to put Thiel up, 7-0.

Quarterback Amos Luptak fumbled on Geneva's first play, and Thiel freshman defensive lineman Bill McCready III recovered at the 29-yard line.

Bakovic threw a 10-yard pass to Malik Beckford on the first play of the next drive, but the drive stalled at the 13-yard line, which led to a 31-yard field goal by Rosales.

Geneva returned the ensuing kickoff to the Thiel 42-yard line. Again, on their first offensive play, the Golden Tornadoes fumbled, which was recovered by Trou Johnson at the 38-yard line.

Unfortunately, Thiel's offense was held three-and-out and Geneva scored its first touchdown on its next possession on a one-yard run by Luptak.

Luptak scored on a 33-yard run on Geneva's next possession. It was the final score the Golden Tornadoes would need as the Tomcats were unable to score over the remainder of the game.

Geneva held a 21-10 lead at halftime after Luptak scored on a three-yard run with 26 seconds remaining in the second quarter. The Golden Tornadoes outscored the Tomcats 24-0 in the second half.

Geneva fumbled eight times, four of which the Tomcats recovered. Thiel fumbled twice, one of which was recovered by the Golden Tornadoes. Both teams threw one interception.

Geneva ran for 408 yards on 71 attempts. Luptak led the way with 154 yards and three touchdowns on 26 carries. Justin Loughrie ran for 88 yards on 17 totes.

Bakovic completed nine passes for 103 yards. He threw one touchdown pass and one interception. Shuler caught three passes, one of which was a touchdown grab, for 55 yards. Ramsey paced the Tomcats with 24 yards on 12 carries.

Matt Crawford and Jaseem Campbell led Thiel's defense with 11 tackles apiece.

Scouting Case Western

Junior running back Zach Hall leads the team with 115 rushing yards on 21 carries.

Junior Colt Morgan and senior Mario Robaina are the Spartans' top targets. Morgan has 201 yards receiving and three touchdowns on 13 receptions. Robaina has caught 10 passes for 115 yards.

Last Year Against Case Western

The Tomcats suffered a 63-20 Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC) loss at DiSanto Field to the 18th-ranked Case Western Reserve Spartans on Saturday, Sept. 15.

The Spartans raced out to a 21-0 lead over the Tomcats in the first quarter and never looked back. CWRU continued to pour it on in the second quarter scoring another 14 points. CWR freshman quarterback Drew Saxton accounted for four passing touchdowns in the half.

The Tomcats would answer just before halftime when sophomore defensive lineman Curtis Johnson forced Saxton to fumble giving the Tomcats the ball deep in Case Western territory. The takeaway led to Thiel's first points of the night when Bakovic connected on a five-yard strike to Devin Turner to make it 35-7 going into halftime.

Thiel would get on the board again midway through the third quarter when Trou Johnson returned a kickoff 87 yards to make it 42-13. Johnson collected 196 return yards on seven attempts.

After a pair of scores by CWRU, Thiel responded with another Bakovic-to-Turner connection, this time from 66 yards out. It was Turner's second

ABOUT THE PRESIDENTS' ATHLETIC CONFERENCE

The Presidents' Athletic Conference (PAC), built on the basic belief that an athletic program is an integral part of college life, but not an entity in itself, looks back on over sixty years of growth and ahead to years of continued academic and athletic excellence.

The league's name clearly reflects its founding principle that operational control of all aspects of intercollegiate athletics is ultimately the responsibility of the presidents of each member institution, and thus active presidential leadership and oversight is paramount in conference administration.

Formally organized in 1955 by Western Reserve University, John Carroll University, Case Institute of Technology and Wayne State University, the PAC was the result of a realization that college athletics, despite numerous virtues for the individual and the institution, were gradually becoming a financial and academic burden. If athletics were to be continued, action had to be taken to place the program on its proper level. This included the premise that benefits of participation should be provided to as many students as possible. The PAC and its membership continue its original, defining mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence.

Institutions involved understand that the key components to its progress lie in the foundation of faith in each member by each other member. It is the conviction of its membership that the PAC is the solution to the dilemma of intercollegiate athletic competition, and they have staked their athletic future on this premise.

Comprised of 10 select private institutions - Bethany College, Chatham University, Franciscan University of Steubenville, Geneva College, Grove City College, Saint Vincent College, Thiel College, Washington & Jefferson College, Waynesburg University and Westminster College - the PAC remains a unique organization in this day of high pressure intercollegiate athletics, with academics at the center of each member's philosophy.

In 2012, the PAC Presidents' Council voted to add Carnegie Mellon University and Case Western Reserve University as affiliate members in the sport of football.

The PAC crowns league champions and awards all-conference honors in its 23 championship sports. Head coaches determine All-PAC squads for all team sports, while in individual sports, such as cross country, golf and indoor and outdoor track and field, all-PAC accolades are based upon performances at the conference championships.

The PAC, which recently celebrated its 60th anniversary, annually awards its men's and women's All-Sports Trophies to the schools which perform best across the board in PAC competition.

Staying true to its original mission of promoting intercollegiate athletics and the pursuit of academic excellence, the PAC has seen over 200 of its participating student-athletes recognized as Academic All-Americans, while the league has also produced numerous NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. Last year, the conference named 1,097 of its student-athletes to the PAC Academic Honor Roll, which recognizes all participating student-athletes who earn a term grade-point average of 3.60 or above.
